His Life

Calvin Cole Young Jr. was born in Palmetto, Florida. He was the oldest of six children born to Calvin C. and Sybil Horn Young.

Waiting in Heaven for him were his parents, a sister Noranne Young Warren (Russell); three brothers: Fred L. Young, Jerry R. Young (Shirley), Thomas H. Young (Sydney) and sister-in-law Lynne Young.

On September 4, he celebrated 70 years of marriage to Ella McCaleb Young. Together they had four children: Calvin C. Young III (Victoria), Thomas Randolph (Carolyn), Jennifer Anne Young McNeil (Angus) and Andrew Edgar Young (Barbara); eight grandchildren: Calvin C. Young IV (Melissa), Megan Lynne Young, Victor Sidney Young, Lauren Anne Young, Shannon Megan Mills Kovalevsky (Adam), Hope Marie Mills, Christina Anne Young Brown (Corey), and Andrew Edgar Young Jr. and three great grandchildren: Lana Marisa Young, Calvin C. Young V and Sofia Hope Kovalevsky. He leaves this loving family to remember him, along with one brother: Joe Earl Young and wife Carol; sister-in-law Penny Young, and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Calvin grew up in Birmingham, AL. He joined the US Navy at 17, served as an Aviation Machinist and earned his GED in the Territory of Hawaii.

After discharge, he earned a degree in TV & electronics in Louisville, Kentucky. His career included TV repair, Radar Field Engineer, and Technical Writing including for stages of the Saturn I and Saturn IB vehicles. Finally, in Houston he owned and operated a Sinclair, then a Shell Service station for 22 years.

Upon retiring in 1992, he and Ella built a home on Smithland Plantation in Adams County, MS where she was born and raised. They were active members at Kingston UMC. Calvin designed the church kitchen, and served on the Finance Committee, and as Lay Leader, among many other positions.

They lived in Natchez until moving to Newport News in 2014 to be near Jennifer.

Opening Prayer

Old Testament Reading: Ecclesiastes 3:1-4 Jen McNeil

Congregational Reading: Psalm 100:1-5

1 Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth. 2 Worship the Lord with gladness; come into his presence with singing. 3 Know that the Lord is God. It is he that made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. 4 Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise. Give thanks to him, bless his name. 5 For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.
